OVER THE DESKTOP

We're Celebrating Our First Special Issue

Welcome to the 1996 special issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. This is our annual overview, the issue that all members of Theta receive. (If you would like to receive more or fewer issues of The Magazine, please see the bottom of this page.)

This special issue includes the Fraternity's annual report, the Foundation's annual and donor report, and reports from our college chapters and alumnae groups. It features a letter of reference form and a roster of the people to whom references should be sent. All this is in addition to our feature article, "On the Safe Side"; a profile of Sue Blair, Delta Theta/Florida, founder of The Blair Foundation; and our regular features.

Producing this 72-page issue was an exciting challenge, and we hope you will find it a useful and interesting part of your Theta life this year.

We also hope that you will find the following summary of the results of our reader survey (Spring 1995) interesting. Almost 300 readers (not all of them Thetas!) took the time to share their opinions of and ideas for The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. We are grateful for the feedback and suggestions, and we are encouraged that the majority of the responses were positive.

The editorial staff and the Editorial Board continue to discuss the survey results, which were helpful when we formulated a mission statement for The Magazine. (This statement appears as part of the masthead on page 3.)

Of the 296 readers who returned the survey to Headquarters, 96.3 percent are out of college, 29.5 percent are younger than 30 years of age, and 48 percent are older than 46 years of age.

According to 95.9 percent of the surveys, The Magazine's effectiveness as a communications tool rates as excellent, very good, or good. When considering The Magazine as a reflection of our membership, 56.4 percent of the respondents rate it as very representative, 40.7 percent as somewhat representative, and 2.9 percent as not at all representative.

The most frequently read sections of The Magazine are

"Snapshots," "College Report," "Profile," the feature article, and "Alumnae Report." The covers are rated as excellent or very good on 93.6 percent of the surveys; the editorial content is rated as excellent or very good on 83.4 percent of the surveys.

One survey section asks, "What do you think the main purpose of The Magazine should be?" One Theta writes, "... to brag!" and another writes, "... to empower women and to elaborate on their successes."

The survey asks respondents to tell us if anyone else reads their copies of The Magazine. Answers range from "My fifteen-year-old daughter" to "I use my magazine in my classroom" to "My husband sneaks a peak when I'm not looking!"

One member writes that she thinks the Spring 1995 issue was disorganized and boring; another writes that that issue was particularly good!

In general, those who responded note that they prefer shorter articles over longer ones and that they would like to see fewer lists in The Magazine. They like to read articles about substantive issues. They want more information about rush, and they would like to see racial diversity reflected on the pages of our publication. While many members write that they enjoy the articles in our health and well-being series, a few others think that these subjects are adequately addressed in general-interest publications.

Many readers included suggestions for future articles in addition to comments on past features. Most of the surveys echoed what one Theta wrote: "The years go by, and our priorities change, but The Magazine is always there to remind me of Theta. Don't quit!"

Loyally,

Liz Appel Rinck

Your Magazine Subscription

When each of us was initiated, it was understood that we would receive a subscription to The Magazine for life.

When this lifetime subscription was initiated, no one could have imagined that our mailing list would now comprise more than 120,000 members, nor could anyone have foreseen the recent dramatic cost increases in postage and publication-quality paper.

During the past 18 months, The Magazine staff has taken steps to reduce expenses, and we continue to investigate and implement additional cost-saving measures. We have determined that the most effective and equitable method of decreasing both production and postage costs is to decrease the number of magazines printed and mailed, based on the interest levels and needs of each member. So in the Autumn 1995 issue, we offered you a choice. You could choose to continue receiving four issues of The Magazine each year, or you could choose to receive only the spring issue, a comprehensive annual overview.

Each year, you have the option to change your annual or quarterly subscription. If you are happy with the frequency with which you receive The Magazine, you need to do nothing. If you would like to receive The Magazine more or less frequently, please fill out and return the coupon on the left.

This is an important notice for Thetas initiated between January 1, 1987, and January 1, 1988. You have been receiving four issues of The Magazine each year. If you do not return the coupon with the first box checked, you will automatically receive only the spring issue.

LETTERS

Editor's Note: The following letters were received in response to "PMS: Solving the Puzzle," by Linaya Hahn, Alpha Upsilon/Washburn (Winter 1995-96). Although PMS and its treatment have been the subject of some controversy, Hahn's recently published book (from which the article was excerpted) has been endorsed by gynecologists, internists, and clinical psychologists. All the letters have been edited for length.

I just wanted to tell you about the first two responses to the PMS article. The first one came at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, December 24. The woman is 38 years old and her mom is a Theta. The daughter saw the article and called us. "That's me; that's me," she said. "What can I do?"

We're already working with her, and I think we're already making a difference. We also got a call from Pennsylvania. "I just read the article, and it fits my daughter to a T. Now where do we go?" Her daughter lives in New York City, so I referred them to my doctor, who wrote the foreword to the book and lives in New York.

Because of the article, things are beginning to happen, and I wanted to say thank you very much.

LINAYA HAHN

ALPHA Upsilon/WASHBURN

As a practicing internist and assistant clinical professor of medicine at the University of Oklahoma, I was taken aback by the PMS article in the Winter 1995-96 issue. There is virtually nothing in this article that is evidence-based with regard to any of the proposed causes. There is absolutely no data to support that thyroid-system malfunction causes premenstrual syndrome. There is no data to support any association with mercury tooth fillings, environmental sensitivity, or parasites. Food allergies have not been shown in placebo-controlled studies to be associated with PMS. Atypical candida albicans is not even a disorder, not to mention a disorder that causes PMS. Many studies done on estrogen and progesterone levels have not documented a causative relationship between "imbalance" and premenstrual symptoms. No specific vitamin or mineral deficiency has ever been shown in any randomized study to be associated with this disease. Poor diet and lack of exercise can certainly cause a variety of health problems and may make the premenstrual time seem generally worse, but certainly has not been thought of as a cause.

It would seem reasonable that your medical articles be written by someone with some knowledge of medicine, whether they be board certified by the American Medical Association, the American Osteopathic Association, or the Chiropractic Association. I do hope that you follow up your next medical article with some accurate information based upon peer-reviewed research proving cause and effect relationships.

SUSAN M. DIMICK, MD

ALPHA OMICRON/OKLAHOMA

What a phenomenal article on PMS! I picked up Linaya's book on Tuesday and by Thursday I had already read it, highlighted it, and reread certain sections. My husband and I have already made an appointment to see Linaya—I'm so glad she's here in Illinois.

Just knowing there's some hope out there has helped me considerably. I'm really excited about getting started on the road to a better lifestyle.

Thank you.

Making a Difference in Ways Large and Small

From organizing fund-raisers to painting children's faces for Halloween, from building parade floats to donating blood, Kappa Alpha Theta's college chapters work hard to have an impact on their campuses and communities. On these pages, editors from 14 college chapters tell of their sisters' campus involvement and community outreach efforts.

Beta/Indiana

IU's Dance Marathon is one of each year's highlights for the Beta Chapter. The Marathon was started in 1991 by a Theta to raise money for Riley Children's Hospital in Indianapolis. This year, there were 500 dancers, almost three times as many as the first year. This year's Dance Marathon raised more than $140,000.

The 1995 Dance Marathon president was Theta Michelle Rodgers. Several other Thetas, including Sara Gerlach and Carolyn Derby, held chairman positions.

In addition, the Beta Chapter contributed more than $10,000 this year.

Iota/Cornell

Last spring, a group of 20 sisters from Iota Chapter spent one Sunday giving back to the community. We cleaned up a condemned house that the city planned to turn into low-income housing.

Unfortunately, this house had been a drug house. What we discovered in that house that day was sad, frightening, and downright angering. We discovered small children's toys, and we were scared by a society in which this could happen and angry at parents who would let children live and grow up in this filth. We found numerous textbooks and letters from professors to former Cornell students; we wondered: Did these belong to a student who was once very much like us?

Many more discoveries were made on that day, some to make our hearts sick or our stomachs turn. One especially important discovery made our hearts soar: The fact that we, as a chapter, could help and give back to the community. Last autumn, another group of sisters knocked down walls and did necessary demolitions so that the house was brought up to code. Architects and builders, who are also volunteering their time, took over during the winter. This spring, we hope to go back to the house and plant flowers and help a family move in. It is especially important to us to see this project through to the end. Our work with the Ithaca Neighborhood Housing Services has taught us so much about ourselves and our community.

Alpha Eta/Vanderbilt

From the first step back onto campus in the fall of 1995, the Vanderbilt Thetas of the Alpha Eta Chapter were enthusiastic about continuing our involvement in the Vanderbilt and Nashville communities.

In early October, members of Alpha Eta devoted a crisp Saturday morning and afternoon to Hands of Nashville, a citywide effort to improve Nashville's environment. The Vanderbilt Thetas' assignment involved the beautification of Nashville's Percy Warner Park.

November 15 marked the much-anticipated date of the Vanderbilt Thetas' annual philanthropy, Theta Barbecue. The proceeds earned at this event benefit CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates).

In honor of the Christmas holidays, the Vanderbilt Thetas participated in the Salvation Army's Ringing of the Bells in early December. We are especially proud of our involvement in another December event: the Country Music Association's AIDS benefit concert, Country Music Cares. The event featured performances by well-known country music personalities.

The members of the Alpha Eta chapter have adopted a slogan: "Give a little." As involvement is a top priority, we could say that the Vanderbilt Thetas give a lot.

Alpha Iota/ Washington-St. Louis

Every Theta at Washington University has her own ideas, interests, and activities. Yet there is one annual event that unites Theta and the entire campus. This event is called Thurtene, and it is one of the largest student-run carnivals in the US. All proceeds go to the Matthew Dickey Boys' Club.

Besides rides and games, the carnival

assignment involved the beautification of Nashville's Percy Warner Park.

also features a number of facades which are run by various campus organizations. Every year, Theta pairs up with another Greek-letter organization to write and produce a play, as well as to build a structure in which to stage the show. Alpha Iota is proud to say that they have won the award for the best play for three years in a row.

The best part of Thurtene, however, isn't the prizes, the food, or even the charity. It is the fact that Thurtene allows everyone on campus to work together for the betterment of the community.

Alpha Omicron/ Oklahoma

The Alpha Omicron Chapter at the University of Oklahoma is committed to making our community the best we can through community service, fundraising, and volunteering.

In response to the devastating Oklahoma City bombing, the members of Alpha Omicron felt a need to offer their help and services. During final exam week, our chapter was able to pull together and begin a nationwide fundraiser through all of the Kappa Alpha Theta chapters across the US. President Kourtney Spencer presented a check to the First Lady of Oklahoma, Cathy Keating, Alpha Omicron. This check was in memory of two family members lost by Alpha Omicron Chapter members, as well as in memory of all the others lost.

Alpha Omega/ Pittsburgh

On October 14, 1995, Pi Kappa Phi on the campus of the University of Pittsburgh held the War of the Roses, their second annual benefit football game for PUSH (People Understanding the Severely Handicapped). All together, 10 sororities participated; however, the Alpha Omega Chapter raised the most money for this event. Considered the underdogs, we took everyone by surprise and carried home the champion's cup along with the satisfaction of knowing that we supported a wonderful cause.

pated in the game. The sisters on the sidelines cheered us on every step of the way. They ran to our house and warmed up towels in the dryer to keep us warm. When it was all over, they washed our clothes and cleaned up the mud we trampled everywhere.

Jenn Magner, Leisje Thorpe, and Christina Calabrese celebrate the Alpha Omega Chapter's victory in a charity football game.

Beta Zeta/ Oklahoma State

Week after week, Beta Zeta members are tugged down the halls of Stillwater's elementary schools by jubilant new-found friends. New Friends, a community outreach program created by Oklahoma State University, gives college students opportunities to meet weekly with at-risk children to help them with their homework and to spend time playing with them.

The Theta house empties on the evening of the New Friend's roller skating party. "About 30 percent of our members serve as New Friends," commented Kelly Padgett, incoming coordinator of the New Friends program and a Beta Zeta herself. "I think that Thetas are involved in this program because they know it is a wonderful way to get involved and possibly make a difference in a child's life."

Beta Xi/UCLA

Safe Sisters began at the Beta Xi Chapter at UCLA in the Spring of 1995. The goal of Safe Sisters is to ensure that each member has a safe ride home when necessary.

Every Thursday night, two members of Beta Xi who have access to a car wear a pager. The pager number is known to all the members of the house. When a member calls the number, the two girls carrying the pager will return the call immediately. The Safe Sisters will then drive to where the member is and drive her safely home.

Beta Sigma/Southern Methodist

At SMU in Dallas, Texas, a Friday night parade was a new homecoming event this year. This parade included floats built by the fraternities and sororities. Due to unusual circumstances, Theta was challenged this year with the prospect of building the parade float without the help of a fraternity. This seemed like an impossible task because of the huge time commitment and the physical labor involved. But Beta Sigma members quickly responded in a positive way. On different days, we utilized not only senior, junior, and sophomore new member classes, but we also had various committees helping to efficiently build the float.

The effort was well worth it, because the Theta float won first place.

Delta Iota/Puget Sound

Kids Can Do, one of the many service programs on the Puget Sound campus, is a service that pairs children with college students who become their mentors. On Saturday, October 21, Laurel Jacobs, service chairman, organized a barbecue for the Kids Can Do mentors and their kids. Jacobs also organized the annual fall blood drive, cosponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta and Cascade Blood Bank. Her efforts helped this be the most successful blood drive in the history of the University of Puget Sound. Jacobs has devoted herself to her job as Delta Iota's service chair and personifies Theta's duty and obligation to community service.

Gamma Pi/Iowa State

The involvement of Erica Brizzi, a junior at Iowa State University, extends far beyond her membership in Gamma Pi Chapter. Brizzi serves as president of the Public Relations Student Society of America and has been a public relations chairperson for various activities and organizations. She works as a staff writer for the campus newspaper, the Iowa State Daily. Brizzi is also the principal French horn for the Iowa State Symphony Orchestra and the assistant principal French horn for the Iowa State Wind Ensemble. She is a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society, and her outstanding grades have qualified her for inclusion on the Dean's List.

Brizzi's involvement reaches the community, as well. As a member of the Service committee at St. Thomas Aquinas Church, she serves as a Eucharistic Minister. This spring, Brizzi will be installed as both alumnae relations chairman and editor for the Gamma Pi Chapter. Her activities encompass a variety of areas and are widely appreciated.

Gamma Psi/Texas Christian

The Gamma Psi Chapter at TCU is extremely proud of our campus involvement.

Scholastically, we have been first in scholarship among all the fraternities and sororities. But the members of Gamma Psi don't stop with scholarship. A Theta is the vice-president of the Student Body House of Representatives and is running for president of the student body. The Hunger Week chairman has long been a Theta. Hunger Week raises money to fight hunger throughout the world, and TCU raises nearly $8000 a year. (Other schools average around $800.) The Student Ambassadors, an organization for the recruitment of prospective students, is another area where Thetas are giving their time. One of the two chairs of the Student Ambassadors is a Theta senior.

Thetas are visible in Panhellenic and serve as Rho Chis during rush. Gamma Psi has several TCU soccer players, plus members of ROTC, Young Life, Campus Crusade for Christ, the school newspaper staff, the TCU choir, and Programming Council.

Epsilon Epsilon/Baylor

The Epsilon Epsilon Chapter is highly visible on campus and in the Waco community.

Last fall, we hosted two all-University events, Theta Taters and a Frisbee-golf tournament, to benefit CASA. At the end of November, Theta hosted a Christmas party for all campus sororities. We incorporated a toy drive into the party. Thetas also worked with children at the zoo on Halloween. Every weekend, Thetas work with Church Under the Bridge. We provide meals, blankets, and church services.

Through service and social activities, the Epsilon Epsilon chapter has built a strong inner bond and stronger bond with the university and the community.

Zeta Eta/Wofford College

The sisters of the Zeta Eta Chapter take pride in making their campus a better place! This year, we are participating in an on-campus beautification project that involves maintaining a certain area of the campus. We are planting pansies in our designated area! And with our 1995 Pansy Plant, we helped beautify the Children's Advocacy Center, which assists victims of childhood sexual abuse. Each sister of Zeta Eta is also collecting tabs from aluminum cans in order to help minimize the medical expenses of children with severe illnesses in the surrounding area.

Zeta Nu/UC Davis

In our chapter, each Theta brings with her a unique and impressive life story, and diversity found among our members is echoed in our involvement on campus and in our community.

In our chapter, we have members of the Young Democrats organization, as well as the College Republicans organization. Some of our members are involved in Bible study groups and religious fellowships, and others work for the Women's Health and Rape Prevention Center.

Upon meeting with our chapter, one is likely to speak with a member of the swim team, ski team, water polo team, volleyball team, cross-country team, or soccer team. A visitor is also likely to meet a beauty pageant contestant or the winner of an international music competition. Our chapter won the University of California at Davis Community Service Award for 1994-95. Zeta Nu members can be found anywhere, doing anything.

One specific example of Theta's impact and interaction with our community is our recent philanthropic event, the first ever Theta Classic, a 5K run. Our chapter raised close to $4,000, and nearly $1,000 was donated to our local CASA chapter. Plans for next year's run are already in the works.

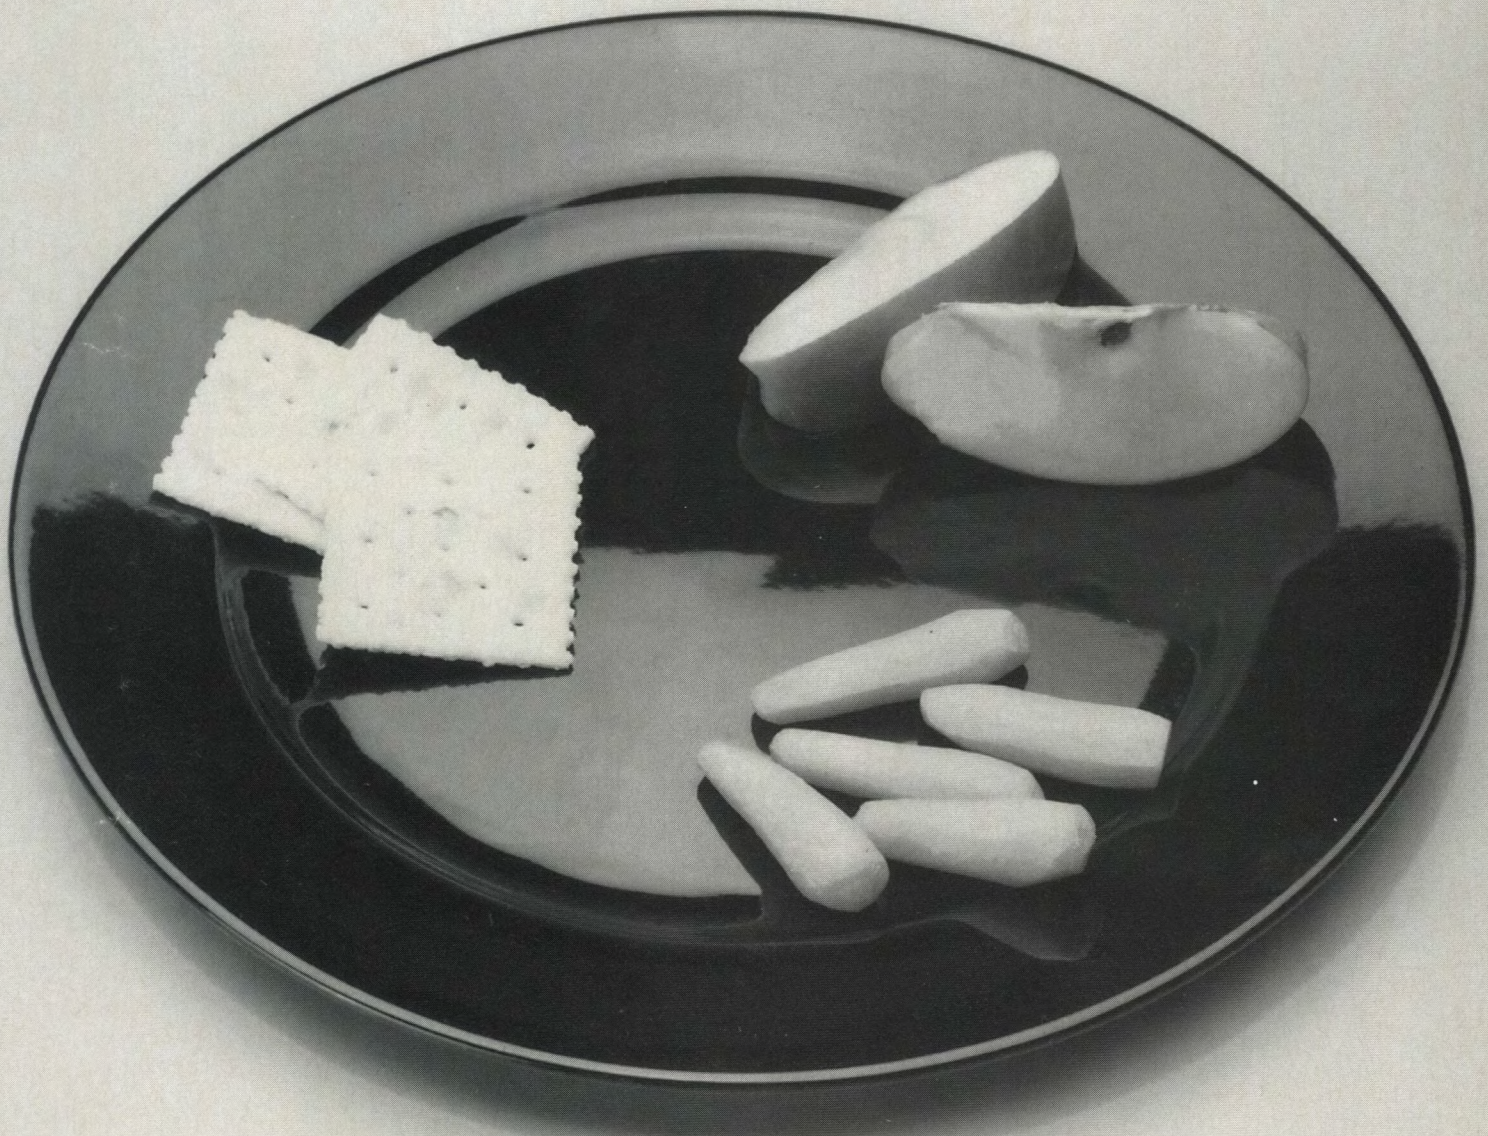

These are just a few of the many examples of Theta's impact here in Davis. The greatest impact of Theta, however, comes from allowing its members to be individuals and celebrating their diversity. ■

This is the only food
Erica will eat today.

Ten to 15 percent of college women suffer from an eating disorder.* Erica is one of them.

These illnesses—anorexia, bulimia, and binge eating disorder—are serious and sometimes life-threatening. Yet very few colleges and universities offer regular educational programs about the dangers of these illnesses.

Since 1994, Kappa Alpha Theta has provided information on eating disorders to college chapters as part of the Balanced Woman Member Education Program. A new education and prevention program for our members will be completed during the 1996-97 school year. The development and implementation of this program is supported by a grant from the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

ON THE SAFE SIDE

NOT TOO LONG AGO, YOU LEFT THE DOORS OF YOUR HOME UNLOCKED FOR THE PLUMBER WHILE YOU WERE AWAY. YOU STOPPED AND GAVE DIRECTIONS TO A STRANGER WHO SEEMED LOST IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD. YOU WENT TO THE GROCERY AT NIGHT BY YOURSELF. YOU LET YOUR DAUGHTER RIDE HER BIKE TO A FRIEND'S HOUSE.

By Karen Schultz Alter

Today, you might think twice before making any of these moves: Crime is on the rise, and many of us question whether or not we are safe on the streets and in our homes. If there was a time when we felt slightly removed from crime or thought that it only happened to other people ... that's probably not the case these days.

We have all experienced crime or the threat of crime, whether it's because a friend's home was robbed, a child was kidnapped from the neighborhood, or something happened to us personally. And we read about it every day. Newspaper headlines bring the reality of crime closer to home with each story of rape, battery, kidnapping, or violent murder. We are further bombarded by television programs and movies that dramatize life and death situations and bring out our worst fears—attacks on helpless victims, oftentimes women. Our overall sense of security weakens with each account.

SAFE AND SOUND?

Homes are safe havens, right? Not necessarily. In her book Street Smarts: A Personal Safety Guide for Women, Louise Rafkin writes, "Most crimes occur within two miles of the home, with a huge percentage of these happening right in the home itself. The bulk of a burglar's time is spent looking for a building with easy access, or one that is unlocked: In nearly half of all home burglaries, access is through an open door or window."

In her handbook, Rafkin, an experienced self-defense teacher, presents tips and advice on topics such as living and traveling alone, combating sexual harassment, using public transportation, protecting children, and dealing with carjacking. Implementing some of the simple techniques she outlines in this book can go a long way toward preventing crime and living safely. If you think your home and neighborhood are free from crime, that's probably when you should reassess its safety, according to Rafkin.

A WAKE-UP CALL

Kathy Salvemini, Gamma Mu/Maryland, and her family learned the hard way. They have lived in Bowie, Maryland (20-miles outside of Washington, DC), since 1969. Even though her family had general safety rules, they never really worried about crime in their neighborhood—until last summer.

"The door from the garage into the house is always supposed to be locked," explains Salvemini. "But that doesn't always happen with two teenagers."

Salvemini recalls that late one evening, burglars used a remote control device to open their garage and enter through the unlocked door inside. "They came in while we were at home, asleep. They took small, portable things such as my jewelry box, my purse, and some silver pieces. Fortunately, we did not wake up and were not harmed. They didn't even wake up the dog or cat!"

The police told the Salvemini family that if burglars are brazen enough to enter an occupied home, they are usually armed. The Salvemini family felt very fortunate that they slept through it.

"This was truly a wake-up call for me and my family. We now have combination locks on the door leading to the garage—there's no way to leave it unlocked. It made us think about a lot of things we hadn't before."

While none of us wants to feel like a prisoner in our own home, we should continually be aware of potential risks at home, changes in the neighborhood, or suspicious activity. Talking with neighbors and attending neighborhood meetings are good ways to keep abreast of current safety and security issues around you. There are also local crime organizations that hold regular meetings. For more information on a Crime Stoppers program near you, call Crime Stoppers International, Inc. 1-800-245-0009.

ON THE STREET

Often we convince ourselves to ignore possibly dangerous situations because we don't want to look bad or inconvenience others. Yet one of the basic tips that any personal safety or self-defense class teaches is never go anywhere alone, especially at night. By doing so, we've become easy targets for attack.

Mollie Nemesi, Alpha Chi/Purdue, realized that it can happen to anyone after being attacked one evening while walking to her car. She wasn't feeling well and decided to leave her group of friends and go home early. Knowing that her car was just a few blocks away and not wanting to ruin anyone's evening, she started for her car.

"As I walked, I noticed a car heading toward me. I saw it turn around and begin to follow me. My thoughts went from I'm fine to I'm going to end up in a ditch somewhere."

"I kept walking, faster and faster. The car stopped, and the driver got out and ran toward me. I ran to the closest house in the neighborhood, but he grabbed me from behind when I reached the driveway. I screamed at the top of my lungs. He waved a knife around and, in the struggle, cut my hand. I just kept screaming and didn't stop until he let go."

Nemesi believes that the attacker left her alone because of her relentless screams. "As soon as I knew he was gone, I yelled for help." Luckily, a friend who lived nearby came out to help her and contacted the police.

Having recently moved to a new city to attend graduate school, Nemesi is more cautious now. "I never walk by myself at night; I don't even go to the grocery store by myself. And I'm always the one who makes sure we stay together if we go out. I also pay closer attention to the areas I'm in. And, if I do find myself in a situation that could be dangerous, I have a plan."

PLAN AHEAD

Fortunately, Nemesi was not injured and now knows what she needs to do to protect herself. She used her instincts to seek help, and she kept calm. It's not a pleasant experience to think about what you would do, how you would react if you were attacked, but it is another key to survival. Rafkin suggests that having a plan is the best defense to being safe on the street. "With a friend, walk your neighborhood and other frequent haunts. Note the location of public telephones and all-night stores. Note back alleys—where do they lead? Are there any escape routes you could use if forced into a corner? Talk with your friend about strategies you might use in various situations," she writes.

She also explains that before you walk in an unfamiliar area, it is best to consult a map, drive through an area first, and talk with someone who knows the area.

OUR BEST DEFENSE

Sometimes our best defense mechanisms are at our fingertips and we just don't realize it. In his book 101 Weapons for Women: A Unique Concept in Women's Self-Defense, Rodney R. Rice explains that "anything is a weapon."

He writes, "Remember that an assailant isn't looking for a fight—he's looking for a victim. By showing resistance to your attacker by using the items near you, he can become shocked, confused, and disoriented to the point of changing his mind entirely, or hesitating long enough for you to escape or turn the circumstances around."

WOMEN'S INTUITION

We are often our own best resources when it comes to defending ourselves against attack. Women's intuition comes in handy on many occasions, and it often is of great benefit during a stressful or harmful situation.

In the book Take A Firm Stand: The Young Woman's Guide to Self-Defense, the authors explain that "... we all defend ourselves every day: we escape all kinds of possibly dangerous situations, and make judgments about our surroundings which ensure our safety. It might be that we decide to go further up the road to cross it at a safer place; or that we don't accept a lift from someone we don't know. Being aware of our surroundings and using our intuition is one of the keys to avoiding being attacked."

ON CAMPUS

College environments are not immune to crime. Although colleges and universities would rather play down crime because of negative public relations, the 1990 Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act requires colleges to publicize their annual campus crime statistics to students, potential students, and employees.

While this legislation is helpful, it doesn't require reporting of off-campus

HOME SAFETY TIPS

from Street Smarts: A Personal Safety Guide for Women,
by Louise Rafkin

- ☛ Don't mark your mailbox with your name, only your street and/or apartment number. You don't want to give away personal information.
- ☛ Don't "hide" keys in obvious places or in easy-to-see locations. If necessary, use a well-hidden box with a combination lock to stash an extra key.
- ☛ Do put a lock on the inside of your bedroom door, especially if you have a feasible escape route through a window or second door. If you put a lock on your bedroom door, make sure the room has a phone extension.
- ☛ Do lock windows at all times. Wooden rods should be placed in sliding glass doors and windows.
- ☛ Don't keep valuables in obvious places. Expensive or sentimentally valuable jewelry should be creatively hidden, not placed in a jewelry box on a bathroom or bedroom counter. Money and documents should also be stored in unobtrusive places.

crimes, which often account for about half the crimes near a school.

One of the groups that lobbied for the passage of this 1990 federal legislation is Safe Campuses Now, Inc. Founded in 1988 by Dana Getzinger Foley, Gamma Delta/Georgia, this nonprofit organization is run by student volunteers (many of whom are Thetas) with the goal of educating students and increasing awareness of crime in an effort to prevent it.

Foley started Safe Campuses Now after she was one of many victims in a rash of off-campus crimes at the University of Georgia. Because her university did not inform students of off-campus crimes, she was unaware of the other recent crimes in her area. If she had known of the other crimes, she could have taken preventive measures to protect herself. (Foley's personal account was featured in an article on campus violence in The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine, Winter 1989-90.)

Ellen Wilkins, Gamma Delta/Georgia, is the current chapter director for the Athens, Ga., chapter of Safe Campuses Now. She and other volunteers work on various projects, including legislative lobbying, crime newswatch, a speaker's bureau, and fund-raising. The organization's motto is "Aware + Prepare = Avoid + Deter."

In addition to lobbying for the Campus Security Act, Safe Campuses Now lobbyists were also instrumental in passing the Georgia and Tennessee Uniform Reporting Acts. This legislation enables the group to track crimes that happen to students when they are off-campus.

"We would like to see the Uniform Reporting Act go national. If we have the ability to collect off-campus crime statistics, we can really help students see the entire picture. The statistics that come in with the Campus Security Act only provide half the information. We want crime reporting nationwide," Wilkins explains, "so that everyone can know what's truly going on."

University of Georgia, Georgia Southern University, University of Tennessee, and University of Florida have Safe Campuses Now chapters. A chapter for the Metro Atlanta University System is currently being established.

In addition to tracking and making available to students statistics on campus crime at these colleges and universities, the volunteers of Safe Campuses Now speak to high school students, fraternity and sorority members, and student organizations. They hand out and post flyers with tips on everything from how to study safely to ensuring the security of dorm rooms during spring break.

"Peer instruction has been proven to be much more effective with college-aged people," Wilkins notes. "They are always interested, ask a lot of questions, and are careful for awhile. But it's frustrating because the next thing you know, you see a woman walking alone on the street. I want to stop her and say, 'Don't do this. Go home!'"

According to Wilkins, the most common crimes on college campuses are petty theft and auto theft. "We're also seeing a trend of gang- and drug-related crimes—kids on drugs or wanting drug money," she explains. "It's the serious crimes, such as rape and assault, that are less frequent, but have a more profound impact on students."

Michelle Baker, chapter president at Beta Nu/Florida State, reports that date rape and other rapes occur at least every semester on her campus. To combat the concern about crime at Florida State, this Theta chapter has recently taken several preventive steps. The chapter members voted to hire a personal security guard to watch the house from dusk until dawn and walk members to and from the door. They also installed an alarm system on the chapter facility, which allows for one entrance/one exit after dark; they use a card system instead of keys, so if someone loses her card, it can be deleted from the system immediately; and they added lighting to their parking lot.

"One of our goals as a chapter is to be proactive versus reactive," Baker notes. "We all feel much safer now, especially with the new security guard."

The chapter also developed a medical emergency program and every member completes a medical information form. Educational and risk management programs on topics such as self-defense and alcohol and drug abuse are offered to the chapter and new member classes. "One of our advisers is a rape counselor and she has talked with the new members before about personal safety," Baker explains.

Ellen Wilkins, Gamma Delta/Georgia, is the current chapter director for the Athens, Ga., chapter of Safe Campuses Now. Other  $\Gamma\Delta$  volunteers are Laura Barfield, Heather Lanier, Mary Helen Barfield, Leigh Ann Lintz, and Devon Mishkin.

Despite the fact that the Ted Bundy tragedies of the 1970s and the Gainesville murders of the 1980s seem in the past for most of us, they are still fresh in the minds of Florida State students.

"Individuals who target the college atmosphere do so because the students feel invincible," says Baker. "We are not as aware of our surroundings, we're not as careful, and we don't realize what's out there."

In addition to their chapter efforts, Beta Nu members also work with the Panhellenic and Greek Systems to provide self-defense classes, a Stop Rape Week program, and other services through the Women's Health Center and the Counseling Center.

Florida State has also taken preventive measures. A 644-SAFE phone line offers pick up/drop off services, and the Blue Light Trail walking path is lined with phones. If a student is attacked, all she needs to do is knock the phone off the hook. It automatically dials the FSU Police Department, located on campus.

"The school newspaper does a good job of covering and reporting crimes and recent incidents," Baker adds, "so we're always current and on guard if we need to be."

Safe Campuses Now has been featured in a book called Crime at College: The Student Guide to Personal Safety, which provides personal safety tips and information on the safest and riskiest college towns in the US. Like the tips provided by Safe Campuses Now, many of the tips can apply to safety on and off campus.

SAFETY FIRST

There are several basic measures we can all take to safeguard ourselves from potential danger, such as adding dead bolts to windows, installing sophisticated security systems at home and work, or taking our children where they wish to go. Yet, sometimes even the best precautions do not ensure our personal and physical safety.

While we should be concerned about crime—the number-one problem facing many cities today—we should not be afraid to approach it head on. There are things we can do, steps we can take to ensure our personal safety and the safety of those we love. Planning ahead, taking precautions, implementing prevention measures, being educated, and simply having an "attitude" are all important keys to fighting crime.

CAMPUS SAFETY TIPS

(from Safe Campuses Now and Crime at College)

- ☞ Avoid working or studying alone in a building at night.
- ☞ Avoid using stairs in remote sections of a building.
- ☞ Keep personal belongings in view while in class, the library, or lab.
- ☞ When in an elevator, position yourself next to the controls. Having a stranger in control of the emergency stop switch could be dangerous.
- ☞ Do not rely on on-campus crime statistics if you want to learn about crime in the area. "On campus" covers only the classrooms and dorms. It does not include fraternities, sororities, social areas, student apartments, etc. Students spend a majority of their time off campus and a high percentage live off campus.
- ☞ Leave valuables at home. Don't take expensive electronic equipment, valuable jewelry, specialized bicycles, firearms, or anything with great sentimental value to school.
- ☞ Engrave valuables with your name and driver's license number (not your social security number) and photograph or videotape your valuables.

1996-97 Rush Personnel Directory

For complete information about submitting a letter of reference, please see page 29. Send references to a rusher's hometown Rush Reference Board Chairman (RRBC) or Area Rush Representative (ARR). If there is no RRBC or ARR, send references to the chapter at the school the rusher is attending. A state-by-state listing of RRBCs and ARRs begins below.

An alphabetical list of college chapters begins on page 28. Reference chairmen and rush dates are listed after addresses. Please note that the dates are approximate; at the time of publication, some chapters had not selected a rush chairman and some campuses had not established rush dates. Alumnae writing references and needing further rush information should call Headquarters, 1-800-526-1870. College chapters needing references for specific rushers should call Headquarters for the name of the appropriate State Chairmen.

the college chapter the rushee is attending. These lists begin on page 21.

REMEMBER THETA AND NPC GUIDELINES: Once rush has begun, alumnae and collegiate members from other campuses must NOT contact rushees; furthermore, alumnae may NOT contact members of the college chapter to inquire about the progress of rush. Such calls must be addressed to the chapter's membership adviser. In addition, alumnae should not expect to receive updates or any information about the status of a specific rushee. Bid list information is also confidential and will not be divulged to any alumna. Alumnae are also prohibited from sending food or gifts in any form to the chapter on behalf of a rushee. Breaking Panhellenic rules may cause the chapter to be penalized.

Rush Board Comments:

"Not-So-Famous" Thetas Succeed in Many Ways

For the 1996 Alumnae Report, 16 editors of alumnae groups wrote about special Thetas in their communities. These are homemakers, professional women with distinguished careers, and dedicated volunteers. Although they are not "famous" Thetas, they accomplish extraordinary things every day.

Bloomington, Indiana

Sally Cook,
B/Indiana

Sally Cook, Beta/Indiana, has been a tutor, a reader for the blind, a caring friend to a mental patient in the Adopt a Patient program, a docent for the historic Wiley house, and a fund-raising chairman for the United Way. Cook's favorite work, however, has been with Opportunity House, a thrift shop that contributes $5,000 monthly to the Bloomington Christian Center.

Bloomington showed its appreciation to Sally Cook by honoring her as the 1991 Volunteer of the Year. The Indiana Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers honored her as Citizen of the Year. Cook has also received awards from the American Red Cross and from Head Start.

In regard to her unbroken years of volunteer work, Sally says, "Anyone can do it. It doesn't take any special training, and the volunteers get more out of it than the recipients do."

Dayton, Ohio

Willie Metzger,
AX/Purdue

The spontaneity and take-charge attitude of a wonderful Dayton alumna, Wilma Burkart Metzger, Alpha Chi/Purdue, has saved the day in the face of many potential disasters. Willie Metzger has served in all offices of the Dayton Alumnae Chapter, including president. She also served as ADP District X.

Following this, she was elected Grand Vice-President Alumnae for a two-year term.

Returning to local service with Theta, Metzger served as the Advisory Board Chairman at the Gamma Upsilon/Miami University Chapter from 1973 to 1993. During this time, Gamma Upsilon received the Fraternity's Outstanding Advisory Board Award and the Outstanding Chapter Award. Metzger was recognized by Miami University as Outstanding Sorority Advisor in 1989-90.

Today, Metzger remains active in the Dayton Alumnae Chapter. We enjoy her enthusiasm and humor; we look to her for guidance; we continue to learn from her.

Denver, Colorado

Kathleen Markey,
X/Syracuse

Although a relative newcomer to the Denver area, Kathleen Markey, Chi/Syracuse, has become a valuable resource for troubled women in the community as well as a welcome addition to the Denver Alumnae Chapter.

Markey's professional and charitable focus is centered on the plight of women in domestic abuse cases. She has developed a special program for women who neither have attorneys nor qualify for aid. She volunteers twice a week with Project Safeguard, coaching women in the area of child custody, restraining orders, and related issues. Markey also manages her regular workload handling domestic violence and custody cases through Legal Aid.

When not working, Markey enjoys various outdoor activities. She has traveled in the US, New Zealand, Africa, and Russia.

Des Moines, Iowa

Nancy Almasi, ΓΠ/Iowa State,
and her son

Nancy Petrick Almasi, Gamma Pi/Iowa State, is a speech-language pathologist. She never realized her own child would require special medical care.

When he was almost two years old, the Almasis' son, Connor, began experiencing staring spells. The initial EEG and neurological exam were negative. Almasi began to study seizure disorders.

When Connor suffered a partial complex seizure, he was hospitalized for observation. He underwent extensive medical testing. Between May and August, Connor experienced a number of seizures and began to have difficulties with speech/language, feeding himself, and climbing stairs. Almasi, still researching and asking questions, requested baseline therapy and evaluations.

In August, oval, light brown spots began appearing on Connor's face, back, and legs. The specialist indicated neurofibromatosis—a progressive neurological condition—was now a possibility.

Almasi has courage, the strength to persevere and withstand difficulty firmly. She will continue to strive for answers for her own child and the lives of other children in many ways.

Ft. Collins Alumnae Chapter president for four years, after holding various other chapter offices. When CASA started in Ft. Collins, Cox went on the executive board as our representative and did such good work that she is now executive director of CASA in Ft. Collins.

Cox has also chaired the Ft. Collins Arts Council and been on the Symphony Guild Board. She is a Junior League Sustainer. Before joining CASA, she worked for a public relations firm.

Tedi Cox is very special to her Theta friends, the Beta Gamma Chapter, CASA workers and volunteers, arts and civic groups in Fort Collins, and to her family.

Indianapolis, Indiana

Sara Jane Lowden Holmes, Alpha/DePauw, has a long history of involvement with the Indianapolis Alumnae Chapter and the Alpha Chapter, as well as with other organizations in central Indiana. "But the most interesting thing about me," Sally Holmes says, "is that my granddaughter is a fourth-generation Theta at Alpha."

Holmes grew up in Frankfort, Ind., and is still active in the Clinton County Historical Society. Thanks to her research and writing skills, the old Frankfort High School and the Clinton County Courthouse were placed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Holmes has served on the Indiana University Medical Center Hospital Board of Trustees and the Hospital Auxiliary Board for 29 years. And for many years, she was active on the Alpha Chapter Facility Corporation Board.

There are 10 Thetas on Sally Holmes's side of the family, a statistic of which she is very proud.

Lincoln, Nebraska

ran Moore's successful campaign for secretary of state. She currently serves as the assistant secretary of state for administration, boards, and commissions. Hubka is now also attending UNL to earn her master's in Public Administration.

"I have made continued involvement in Theta a priority because of how much I gained from my Theta experiences in college," says Hubka, who serves as the Lincoln Alumnae Chapter president.

Long Beach, California

Mary Klingensmith, Gamma Rho/UC Santa Barbara, was for many years a teacher, counselor, and research assistant with the Long Beach Unified School District. She is currently a highly visible and successful real estate broker.

Klingensmith has always found time to give back to the Long Beach community. She has served on the Board of Directors of the Long Beach Day Nursery, the Dental Foundation, Long Beach Community Hospital, the Symphony, and the Memorial Hospital Medical Center Foundation.

Klingensmith has served as president of Theta's Long Beach Alumnae Chapter and as president of the Junior League of Long Beach. She has also held numerous positions with the American Cancer Society and serves as a mentor to inner-city high school students.

The Long Beach Alumnae Chapter has respect for Klingensmith as a tireless and dedicated community volunteer; a talented professional; and a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and friend.

Minneapolis, Minnesota

Many Minneapolis Theta alumnae know Ruth Kelly Hustad, Beta Xi/UCLA, from the annual fall get-assistant.

After graduation, Hubka worked as the appropriations committee clerk for State Senator Scott Moore and was selected President Bush's youth coordinator for Nebraska. In 1994, Hubka together that she sponsored for more than 25 years. What they may not know is how involved she is as a local businesswoman and community volunteer.

In 1968, Hustad started Hustad Real

Estate. The company has grown to Hustad Companies. It is a small company, run by a handful of people, including Hustad's husband and daughter. The small company does big business: It is involved with more than 1500 acres of residential and commercial buildings.

In 1993, the Eden Prairie Chamber of Commerce recognized Hustad as the Small Business Person of the Year. In 1995, the Minneapolis Area Association of Realtors recognized Hustad as a dedicated community volunteer.

Hustad has been active in many volunteer organizations, including Fairview Southdale Hospital. She serves on both the Board of Trustees and the Board of Directors. Since 1987, Hustad has been involved with the hospital's biennial gala. It has brought in more than $675,000 for community health care programs.

Ruth Hustad is a hard worker who gives back to the Minneapolis community.

Monterey County, California

Diane Bower,
AX/Purdue

Members of the Monterey County Alumnae Club are proud of their very talented member Diane Bosse Bower, Alpha Chi/Purdue. As a textile artist and interior designer, she has inspired students at Monterey Peninsula Community College for 21 years. Along with her duties as department head of Family and Consumer Sciences, Bower teaches a full range of classes in interior design and related subjects.

Bower is also an active member on two state council of home economics planning committees. Through an innovative internship program, Bower helps her students find part-time jobs in the design field. Thanks to this program, her department received a Chancellor's Award for outstanding partnership with the community. And for 19 years, she has been the key volunteer in gathering donations of original artwork to be used at the annual charity auction for Beacon House, a Recovery Center in Pacific Grove.

Bower is a loyal supporter of both the alumnae club and the Monterey Bay Area Panhellenic. In her profession and her life, she embodies "... the lifelong quest for excellence in intellectual pursuits."

New York, New York

Nancy Valentine,
Y/Minnesota

The talent and lifelong passion for art of artist Nancy Valentine, Upsilon/Minnesota, were recently recognized when Valentine was named chairman of the National Advisory Board of The National Museum of Women in the Arts. This Washington, DC, museum contains the most important collection of women's art in the world. Valentine was a founding member of the museum; her collection of English Georgian silver is now part of the permanent collection. She originally catalogued the pieces for the museum and helped expand the catalog into a book. Women Silversmiths, 1685-1845 is used by university art students across the country.

Valentine has been active in the New York City alumnae group since 1970. She notes that Theta has always been important in providing a social link. "My children don't stay in touch with many people from their school days, but because of Theta I am still in touch with people from all parts of my life," she explains.

Northern Virginia

Jenifer Lucas, Alpha Upsilon/Washburn, combines her talent for friendship with a determination to bring order out of chaos. She has organized several high school class reunions, two pledge class reunions, two alumnae dinner groups in Washington, DC, and helped plan last summer's Washburn Law School class reunion. She annually rallies Thetas in the DC Race for the Cure; in collusion with the dinner groups, she organized the 1996 Washington Founders Day at the US Capitol.

Throughout her professional life, Lucas has helped other women deal with career issues and difficulties in the workplace. In 1990, she joined the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission in Washington, DC. She continues to work with Joan Carter, Gamma Omega/Auburn, as cochairman of the Career Opportunities Committee of the DC Women's Bar Association.

Lucas was Fraternity Counsel for 12 years and on the advisory boards of Washburn's Alpha Upsilon Chapter, Oklahoma's Alpha Omicron Chapter, and Tulsa's Gamma Tau Chapter. In the early 1980s, she was a member of the restructuring committee that developed the Fraternity's current governing structure.

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Betsy Douglass White, Alpha Omicron/Oklahoma, is a behind-the-scenes volunteer who makes an extraordinary difference.

White served as Alpha Omicron Permanent Alumnae Secretary for nearly seven years. She was also a long-time member of the Alpha Omicron Facility Corporation Board, Advisory Board, and chairman of the chapter's seventy-fifth anniversary celebration.

This veteran kindergarten teacher has been elected secretary, vice-president, and president of the Oklahoma City Alumnae Chapter. She served as chairman of the chapter's highly successful fund-raiser. She currently serves on the Theta board as the Oklahoma City Panhellenic secretary.

White also has time for other projects. She has served as vice-president of the Orchestra League and cochairman of Lyric Theatre's Festival of the Trees. Mobile meals, teaching Sunday School, and sewing teddy bears for the underprivileged also keep her busy.

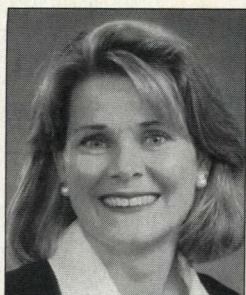

White works hard for what she believes, and she believes in Theta.

San Jose, California

Kites, pansies, and twin stars were literally a way of life for Sharon Glenn Pratt, Beta Mu/Nevada. All seven of the Glenn daughters and one daughter-in-law became Thetas at the University of Nevada, Reno.

Pratt joined the law firm of Borton, Petrini & Conron in 1992; in 1995, she was named a managing partner and is the first woman to manage one of the firm's 16 offices.

In her practice, Pratt has specialized in complex and large-exposure cases, including environmental actions, product liability cases, wrongful death cases, and defense of class actions. She has also been acting as a volunteer settlement conference judge pro tem and arbitrator for Santa Clara County Superior Court.

As a Theta, Pratt is past treasurer and vice-president of activities for the San Jose Theta Alumnae Chapter board and is currently a representative on the San Jose Panhellenic board. She has also participated in numerous fund-raising events. She presently serves on the board of the Junior League of San Jose.

"I've made some very fine Theta friends through my association with the chapter," says Pratt. "I also have a close group of Theta friends from USC with whom I keep in touch. When you're in college, you don't realize how important the friendships in Theta will be later on."

In 1988, Butz also developed The Children's Shop, a year-round "store" that accepts children's clothing items in good condition and then oversees their distribution to families in need.

Selected in 1991 as the Atascadero Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year, Butz is a commissioner on the city's Parks and Recreation Commission and a board member of the Atascadero Recreation Center Committee. She is also active in PEO, AAUW, Kiwanis, the Atascadero United Methodist Church, and the San Luis Obispo Alumnae Club.

"What means the most to me is that the programs I've started now have lives of their own. They will continue long after I'm gone. That says a lot about our community and its tremendous heart," says Butz.

Seattle, Washington

The Seattle Alumnae Chapter is

In 1988, Butz organized Atascadero's proud of two special women.

Stacie L. Dietsch-Becker, Delta Iota/Puget Sound, is now an intern in the Boeing Office of Education while she finishes work on her PhD. Her research is focused on the areas of virtual technology/learning environments, visual literacy, and education transformation. Becker is presently in the Boston area collaborating with people at Harvard and MIT.

Becker has been involved in the Seattle Alumnae Chapter's "Way Out Group" (so named because they live 30 minutes from our general meetings). This group has been made up of older alumnae, and Stacie Becker has been a shining star to this group. She checks in on some of them and keeps up with what is going on in their lives.

Sara Halin Skoglund, Alpha Lambda/Washington, was recently hired as the president of the Bellevue, Wash., Chamber of Commerce. Skoglund began her career in chamber work with the Ballard (Wash.) Chamber of Commerce. From there, she went on to the newly formed Southwest King County Chamber. Her energy and expertise lead the fledgling Southwest King County Chamber through airport expansion issues. While with Southwest King County, Skoglund completed a six-year course of chamber-of-commerce management at the University of Colorado.

Skoglund is currently president-elect of the Chamber of Commerce Executives Washington Chapter and copresident of the Advisory Board at Alpha Lambda/Washington. ■

Job Market Tip #1: Growing numbers of employers are using computers to store and manage the résumés they receive from employment candidates. To make sure that you don't get overlooked by the computer (even if you're qualified for an open position), develop a "computer friendly" résumé. It should be laser printed in black ink on white paper without any graphics, italics, or underlining and contain the keywords—the nouns and phrases—that employers use to describe necessary qualifications for the job you want.

A Look Inside the Strategic Plan

Since January 1995, Kappa Alpha Theta has been using its Strategic Plan as the foundation for board meetings, committee activities, and staff work plans. New task forces have been established to meet the goals, objectives, and strategies in the plan that resulted from surveying the needs of collegiate and alumnae members.

Highlights of the progress made on various components of the plan follow.

Educational Programs

A major emphasis of the Education Committee has been to develop and implement an evaluation process for all educational programs. Twenty-five college women, representing 21 Theta chapters, 18 states, and 15 districts, attended an Educational Focus Group Weekend at Headquarters. They evaluated the Balanced Woman series, the Member Orientation Program, scholarship, leadership development, risk management, and recognition. The participants also provided feedback on potential new programs such as eating disorders and technology.

Because of the importance of scholarship, the Focus Group Weekend was a collaborative effort to evaluate chapter scholarship and determine ways the Fraternity can assist chapters in improving scholarship.

Another objective under educational programs involves providing members with opportunities for service and reviewing Theta's relationship with the National CASA Association. A committee is in the process of conducting research and interviewing CASA board members, Thetas, alumnae chapters/clubs, and college chapters.

Membership Development

The Membership Committee was charged with reviewing current recruitment strategies and recommending modifications. Currently, the committee is reorganizing and shortening the Rush Leader Program. Another goal is to include rush modules that can "stand alone" and be taught in an efficient and timely manner.

In addition, Membership Regional Directors (MRDs) continue to support all college chapters and develop recruitment strategies that follow Panhellenic and NPC guidelines as well as help the chapters pledge and initiate the maximum number of qualified women.

In conjunction with the Development Committee, members of the Membership Committee have been involved in the development of a member recruitment/extension campaign. Various materials with a common theme—"Together Thetas"—will be available to college chapters for rush in the Fall of 1996. The same materials will be used for extension presentations to campuses where Theta looks to start new chapters.

Chapter/Club Support

The Finance Committee recently appointed five Finance Regional Directors to assist with financial matters at the college chapter level; provide financial advice to facility corporations; and consult with finance advisers, vice-presidents of finance, and facility corporation members as needed. The structure of the FRDs mirrors the existing regional structure for college chapters, including Alumnae and College Regional Directors (ARDs and CRDs), Membership Regional Directors (MRDs) and Supervisors of College Chapter Bylaws.

The Strategic Plan also sets the objective of educating college chapters on following the Fraternity's risk management guidelines in all areas of chapter operations. As a priority area for the Fraternity, risk management was chosen as a topic to be evaluated during Focus Group Weekend.

Communications

Kappa Alpha Theta's publications are being evaluated to determine their effectiveness in meeting the needs of individual members and chapters/clubs. The Bulletin newsletter and the contents of the eight monthly mailings that are distributed to chapter/club officers have been evaluated with improvements implemented for the 1996-97 academic year.

A readership survey was part of the Spring 1995 issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine. A five-member Editorial Board was also appointed to involve members in topic selection and broaden the overall appeal of The Magazine. To help control costs while responding to the different needs of Thetas, the Fraternity offered members a choice between receiving an annual comprehensive issue or four quarterly issues. With the Editorial Board, The Magazine staff will develop a long-range strategic plan for the publication.

Theta Talk, a semi-annual publication mailed to approximately 400 alumnae-at-large members, was also evaluated. The Alumnae Committee is currently considering overall program improvements for alumnae at large.

The Link, a program for graduating seniors, is currently being evaluated via a survey of members of Theta's senior classes. The Link program was designed to provide materials and resources to ease the transition from collegiate to alumnae life.

Institutional Infrastructure

One goal of the Strategic Plan is to differentiate between governance and management functions. Members of Grand Council are focusing more on the policy, mission, direction, and values and principles of Kappa Alpha Theta than on rules, regulations, routine transactions, normal operations, and minor policies. Grand Council fills the important role of governing the organization and monitoring the management functions driven by staff and volunteers, as well as ensuring the long-term welfare of Theta.

To ensure that the direction of the Fraternity and Foundation is relevant to the changing needs of the members of Kappa Alpha Theta, a task force has been appointed to study the needs of college members and how Theta can best utilize communications technology to meet those needs.

The Executive Nominating Committee is evaluating and adjusting the qualifications of Council and Trustee service and the nominating process. The key objective for the Executive Nominating Committee is to consider the diversity of Theta membership and seek candidates who possess the necessary skills and expertise to serve in positions of governance.

Another goal under the section of infrastructure is to adjust the Theta structure to ensure a more efficient and responsive operation. Cochairmen of a structure task force have been appointed and additional members will be responsible for studying all levels of the Fraternity's volunteer structure.

At the August 1995 Board Retreat, members of Grand Council unanimously agreed to move forward with regional training of advisers. The Education Committee is currently working to schedule regional training sessions for advisers this year.

Because of our love for the Fraternity and because we value the powerful force it has exerted in our lives, we wish to see Kappa Alpha Theta continue as a leader among women's fraternities and as an effective impetus in the lives of all its members.

The profile of the Fraternity's member volunteer has changed, and the Structure Task Force is examining how the Fraternity's structure might be improved to meet these changes. We are soliciting input from all members of the Fraternity so that your opinions can be considered in our ultimate recommendations for the 1998 Grand Convention.

What a momentous year this has been for Kappa Alpha Theta! With the commemoration of our 125th Anniversary, we celebrated Theta's past, and with the development of the Strategic Plan, we looked toward Theta's future.

Just as the world continued to change, so, too, did the needs and interests of our sisters. Kappa Alpha Theta continued to evolve and grow with our members by providing cutting-edge programs that addressed contemporary issues facing the women of our society. Thanks to generous gifts from our donors, the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation was able to support many of these important educational programs. The gifts received made it possible for the Foundation to provide a grant to the Fraternity to help fund Talking About Alcohol, the Balanced Woman Member Education Program, leadership development opportunities, and the Chapter Consultant program. In addition, the Foundation awarded more than $191,000 in scholarships to Thetas pursuing undergraduate and graduate degrees.

As explained on the preceding page, a major portion of the year was devoted to developing the Strategic Plan. This plan will provide direction and structure for both Council and the Board of Trustees as they make governance decisions for the future of the Fraternity and the Foundation as we move toward the twenty-first century.

Our 125th Anniversary was a catalyst for reflection on our past. We're very proud of where we've been, and we can look forward with confidence and strength. The timeless values of sisterhood first articulated by our Founders will be the foundation for new goals that will become reality with the continued support of Thetas everywhere.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA PROGRAMS

1995 Leadership Conference

More than 350 collegians and alumnae explored visions for Theta's future during the four-day Leadership Conference in June. Each day had a theme—Dare to See Clearly, Dare to Take a Stand, Dare to Empower Ourselves/Others, Dare to Soar—and was devoted to a different aspect of developing visionary leadership. For the first time, the Conference provided joint programming for alumnae and collegians.

Former Grand President Sue Supple, Alpha DePauw; Oklahoma First Lady Cathy Keating, Alpha Omicron/Oklahoma; and Indiana Secretary of State Sue Anne Gilroy, Alpha/DePauw, were principal conference speakers. Special Conference events included a visit to the Alpha/DePauw Chapter, tours of Fraternity Headquarters, and the first Foundation-sponsored FUNdRun.

The 1995 Conference was designed to provide a balanced program of leadership development and Theta-specific information. Participants took home skills and information to not only prepare them for their Theta leadership roles, but also to benefit them in their lives outside of Theta. On her Conference evaluation, one collegian wrote, "I believe the information I learned here will help me in all my endeavors."

LeaderShape Institute

Kappa Alpha Theta continued its partnership with the LeaderShape Institute, an innovative leadership training experience emphasizing leading with integrity. Eleven members attended the week-long course, which provides experiences and insights into the group problem-solving process. In addition to learning hands-on leadership techniques, participants gain exposure to corporate executives who share their insights and respond to questions about leadership, careers, and values. "I learned to listen more and accept constructive criticism in order to help my chapter," said Kim Svenson, Alpha/DePauw.

Kappa Alpha Theta has seen positive results in chapter management by the presidents who have attended LeaderShape. Elements of the LeaderShape experience were incorporated in the 1995 Leadership Conference.

Chapter Consultants

During the 1994-95 school year, Theta's six chapter consultants visited more than 70 college chapters. They met with chapter officers, executive committees, advisory board and facility corporation officers, and Greek advisors. Consultants offered suggestions and encouragement and carried innovative ideas from one chapter to another. They served as the primary link between college chapters and the Fraternity.

According to Chapter Consultant Christine Lawson, Omega/UC Berkeley, being a recent college graduate is an advantage. "We're close in age to the college members, and we share a lot of the same experiences," she says. "They believe us when we say, 'You can do this.'"

Both thriving chapters and chapters in difficulty benefit from the Chapter Consultant program. One chapter president wrote, "The consultant was truly an asset to our chapter and officers while she was here. I only wish that her visit with us had been longer."

Balanced Woman Member Education Program and Member Orientation Series

Theta's ongoing member education program provides 29 weeks of chapter programming on issues facing women. The flexible format of the program allows individual chapters to creatively tailor the workshops to meet the needs of their members on topics of health, leadership skills, scholarship, sisterhood, and much more.

Not For Ourselves Alone is the Member Orientation module of the BWMEP. Through this module, new members successfully assimilate into the chapter experience and quickly become an integral part of the day-to-day operations of the chapter. The shortened pledge period (New members are initiated between the fourth and twelfth week after pledging.) helps promote chapter solidarity.

Chapters are surveyed regularly about the effectiveness of the BWMEP and about ways they have adapted the program. Feedback from chapters and from the Chapter Consultants led the Fraternity to include information on eating disorders in the "Maintaining a Sound Mind and Body" module. An expanded health, nutrition, and fitness education program will be completed during the 1996-97 school year.

TAA (Talking About Alcohol)

The goal of the TAA program is to reduce the risk of alcohol-related health and impairment problems. It gives Theta collegians accurate, objective, research-based information and looks at alcohol use as a health and safety issue, not a moral issue. TAA teaching teams include a TAA program coordinator and an alumna volunteer. Five alumnae were trained to facilitate the program, with four more expected to be trained next year.

During the 1994-95 academic year, 23 chapters (more than 1200 women) participated in TAA. Follow-up comments from participants included: "Good information, helped me to see that I need to change ... extremely impressive." (Delta Epsilon/Arizona State) and "I believe this actually could change some attitudes and perceptions." (Epsilon Nu/Virginia Tech).

The Epsilon Pi Chapter at Bucknell won the Outstanding Risk Management Program award for TAA, and the Beta Delta Chapter won a $1000 grant for nonalcoholic programming from the University of Arizona.

According to Candice Baumgarten, Psi/Wisconsin, Education and Training Director, the TAA program has been remarkably effective. "Forty-eight percent of the participants who were making high-risk choices with regard to alcohol say that TAA has caused them to change their behavior. This is higher than the average for this kind of program."

125th Anniversary Celebration

On January 27, 1995, between noon and 1 PM, Thetas across the world shared a golden moment. In celebration of the Fraternity's 125th Anniversary, they paused to reflect on the significance of Kappa Alpha Theta membership in their lives, to recall Theta friends, and to renew personal commitments to Theta.

Eighteen Thetas in the lower northern area of Virginia celebrated Founders Day for the first time. Eight 50-year Thetas attended the Annapolis/Severna Park Alumnae Club's Founders Day celebration, and the first member of Beta Zeta Chapter at Oklahoma State was the guest of honor at the Denver Alumnae Chapter's Founders Day event. Six decades of collegians and alumnae from the Alpha Mu Chapter at Missouri gathered for a Founders Day weekend.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine marked Theta's anniversary with a photo-illustrated feature article in the Winter 1994-95 issue that commemorated 12 decades of sisterhood. The Magazine continued to celebrate with "KAΘ Scrapbook," a year-long historical series. A video, "Sisterhood: The Wind Beneath Our Wings," and a special-edition poster also helped make Theta's 125th an anniversary to remember.

Awards and Honors

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation received awards of distinction in the categories of best new development idea and best nondirect fund-raising effort at the annual Foundations Seminar. The seminar is cosponsored by the National Panhellenic Conference and the National Interfraternity Conference.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine was honored by the College Fraternity Editors Association. "Hey, Girlfriend ... You're Beautiful!" (Summer 1994), by Luci Jackson, Alpha Chi/Purdue, received second place in the profile category of the 1994-95 Awards Program.

Scholarship

Since its beginning in 1870, Kappa Alpha Theta has encouraged the highest scholarship among its members. Theta supports scholastic achievement and the pursuit of knowledge through innovative programming and an extensive series of scholarships awarded by the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

During the 1994-95 academic year, 1370 undergraduate members achieved straight As for at least one school term. During the autumn 1994 term, 66.7 percent of Theta's college chapters had grade point averages (GPA) that exceeded the all-sorority averages (ASA) on their campuses. During the spring 1995 term, 71.6 percent of Theta's chapters were above the ASA on their campuses. A specific objective outlined in the Strategic Plan states that all Kappa Alpha Theta chapters will exceed the ASA by the 1999-2000 school year.

In 1995, the Kappa Alpha Foundation awarded more than $191,000 through 91 undergraduate and graduate scholarships. Award amounts for these scholarships ranged from $500 to $10,000. Two new scholarships were established: the Virginia Burns Boynton Graduate Scholarship and the Agnes Wright Strickland/Frances Strickland Graduate Scholarship.

Member Recruitment

Membership Regional Directors (MRDs) continued to work with Kappa Alpha Theta college chapters to meet quotas and totals during formal and informal rush periods. With new social trends and no-frills guidelines from the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), many chapters have had to rethink their recruitment strategies, evaluate and scale down entertainment, and coordinate every part of the message they send during rush and continuous open bidding (COB). Since college Panhellenics currently set the guidelines, rush on each campus is different and has its own set of challenges.

The following trends have had particular impact on rush during the 1990s and continue to influence the rush process:

- Some universities now hold rush during the second term or late in the first term because they believe this helps students become grounded academically. They also believe that deferring rush helps students make more informed, intelligent decisions.
- The decline in students participating in rush puts pressure on chapters with high operating expenses. They must keep their numbers up to maintain their large facilities.
- Seventy percent of college women work 20 or more hours a week. Fraternities and sororities must make Greek life affordable for these women.
- The college student population is older and more ethnically diverse. Fraternities and sororities must make membership more valuable for these students.

Lissa Bradford, Theta's NPC Delegate, who will assume the NPC chairmanship in 1997, explains that NPC will continue to build on its rush recommendations through findings of the Rush 2000 Committee. "Looking to the future of rush and appealing to the students of the next century are goals of this committee," Bradford notes.

New Recruitment Campaign: "Together Thetas"

In response to current rush trends, Kappa Alpha Theta has been researching the need for and developing the components of a member recruitment campaign and rush materials to be used at the college level. From napkins to name tags, display boards to banners, the chapters can choose the items that best meet their needs during the first round of rush (where the guidelines are more strict) or during COB (where chapters can be more creative).

Educational Programs funded by the KAΘ Foundation

The "Together Thetas" theme was chosen to reflect unity and sisterhood, as well as to refer to intelligence, ability, balance, style—the Theta woman is definitely together! The Chapter Consultants conducted focus groups during their chapter visits to evaluate the theme and gather additional feedback on the campaign. "The idea of a campaign has been well-received by the chapter members. We're eager to kick off the campaign at Grand Convention and make the materials available during the fall of 1996," explains Karen Alter, Director of Communications.

Friendship Fund

The Friendship Fund was founded in 1926. In We Who Wear Kites, it is noted that the contributed funds are "... used to make real to those who have met sorrow and temporary defeat, the practical feel of sister hands clasping theirs in dark places." Management of The Friendship Fund was transferred from the Fraternity to the Foundation at the 1994 Convention.

Gifts are given at the written request of two members on behalf of a Theta sister in great need. After deliberation by the Friendship Fund Committee, composed of the Fraternity and Foundation presidents, a check is sent to the gift recipient as a tribute of love and concern from all Theta sisters. The recipient is not informed of the identity of the requestors, and all records are maintained in confidentiality at Headquarters.

Gift amounts range for $250 to $5000 each, depending upon circumstances and need. In fiscal year 1994-40 was granted to recipients. One member wrote, "This gift is accepted with a full heart and an even stronger belief in the love of this world. Thank you, sisters, for your love and loyalty. My life will be easier because of you. I hope one day to reciprocate this generosity for another sister in need."

CASA

In 1994-95, the Foundation awarded a philanthropic grant of $50,000 to the National CASA Association, Theta's official philanthropy. The grant included funding for a toll-free information 800 number for volunteers, public relations and educational materials used to recruit, train and educate volunteers, and the Program Director of the Year Award recognizing the most outstanding local CASA program director.

There are approximately 37,000 CASA volunteers who represent more than 128,000 abused and neglected children in the juvenile court system. These trained volunteers advocate to the judge on behalf of a child who has most often been removed from the home due to abuse and neglect. Armed with information about the home situation, the CASA volunteer's voice represents a decision to the judge that is in the best interests of that individual child.

In addition to financial support, Thetas across the United States lend volunteer assistance to their local CASA programs sometimes known under the names of Guardian ad Litem, ProKids, Child Advocates, CASA and more. Theta support is valued at all levels and the time commitment and dollars given to local programs is inspirational.

"Yes, life has been difficult, but I have always had a strong belief in life—and my friends and family have helped pull me through. This gift is accepted with a full heart and an even stronger belief in the love of this world. Thank you, sisters, for your love and loyalty, thank you from the bottom of my heart. My life will be easier because of you. I hope one day to reciprocate this generosity for another sister in need."

"I am writing to thank you for awarding me the Founders Scholarship. I believe it is the highest honor I have ever received, and I feel truly grateful to you for making it possible. This award especially has encouraged me to aim for the highest scholarship and has reminded me that Kappa Alpha Theta is about giving back to those Thetas who will follow us."

THE KAPPA ALPHA THETA MAGAZINE

1995 DONOR REPORT

THANK YOU FROM CASA

Dear Members of Kappa Alpha Theta:

To say that the partnership between Kappa Alpha Theta and National CASA has been supportive and fruitful only touches the surface. Theta has meant so many things to the CASA network in the past few years. Local CASA programs all across the country have benefitted from Theta-sponsored fund-raisers and other volunteer help. Theta support to National CASA has assisted with publications, media work, recognition of outstanding program directors, and the toll-free information number.

Especially meaningful has been the personal connections that have arisen. So many times, we have heard from people who knew about CASA because they are Thetas. The generosity and commitment we have seen has been truly sustaining and made a real difference in our abilities to be effective advocates for abused and neglected children.

We'd like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all Thetas from making CASA a priority. You have helped thousands of abused and neglected children find safe, permanent homes. We look forward to continuing this important work for children together.

Sincerely,
Michael S. Piraino
Chief Executive Officer
National CASA Association

Collegians from 21 Theta chapters attended an Educational Focus Group Weekend at Headquarters in February. They worked with volunteers and staff members to evaluate the Fraternity's existing educational programs, and they provided feedback on potential new programs.

Kappa Alpha Theta's newest chapter, Zeta Tau, was installed on the campus of the University of Delaware on November 4. Eighty women were initiated as the chapter's first members.

An Angelic Agenda

In the summer 1991, Sue Blair, Delta Theta/Florida, was her usual exuberant, compulsively efficient self. She was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta's Grand Council, and she and her husband were partners in a very successful real estate education business. Blair says she just assumed she was living in a happy world. Then, she explains, "The world came crashing down."

Blair now talks freely about the pain she felt when her marriage and family collapsed. With the help of Theta friends, she packed up and filed for divorce. Another friend helped her enroll in a three-day program for families of alcoholics and drug addicts. Blair now credits this program with saving her life. It also ultimately served as a catalyst for her present calling.

Blair's own life-changing experience was the first step in the creation of The Blair Foundation. The mission of this nonprofit organization is to empower individuals to discover the opportunities in life changes. "My vision is to work with women, and men, who have experienced life-changing situations, such as the death of a family member or a divorce, and teach them how to recreate lives for themselves and their children," explains Blair.

As the foundation's executive director, she oversees its outreach and fund-raising, conducts seminars and workshops for women's shelters, and is publisher of Angels Direct, a catalog featuring a broad array of one-of-a-kind angel merchandise. A percentage of the profits from Angels Direct is donated to The Blair Foundation.

"Today I am grateful that it all happened," Blair says of her nightmare more than four years ago. "It gave me an opportunity to discover what I wanted in life."

Blair made this discovery while attending a joint Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation/Council meeting in 1992. "As I was sitting there at the meeting, I realized how privileged we (the board members) were, and I thought about how many more people outside of Theta I'd met in the last six months who didn't have all the options and opportunities we did."

That realization sparked the idea for an organization that would help those who have experienced traumatic life changes. "I sketched out the whole plan for The Blair Foundation while sitting there," says Blair. "It just came flowing out of me: 'This is what you're about, Sue!'"

So strong was Blair's conviction about her plan that she immediately went about forming the foundation and assembling its first board of directors. "I firmly believe God had a plan for it," says Blair. She notes that she doesn't think it was merely coincidence that The Blair Foundation received its tax-exempt status on January 27, 1993—Kappa Alpha Theta Founders Day—a mere 37 days after filing.

Blair next went to work reading every book she could find on start-up moneys for foundations. She spent the year writing grant proposals. "I prayed every day: 'OK, God, you've given me this challenge, how am I supposed to fund it?'"

Finally, in 1994, Blair says she received an answer, "After a year of pounding my head against the wall, I just sat down and wrote the business plan for Angels Direct. It just laid itself out for me: a business that would feature products that are inspirational, that would empower women and men who are trying to support families, and that would help fund the work of The Blair Foundation."

Blair set out to establish Angels Direct as a catalog business. She had no experience in retail, but she was armed with a newly established line of credit and retailing advice and support from Vice-President Development Margie Miller Baum, Beta Epsilon/Oregon State, and Director of Development Nancy began gathering information: contacting catalog companies, looking for ways to generate income to produce the catalog, and learning production techniques. "In my enthusiasm, I tried to make it all happen at once," recalls Blair. For example, she says, "I just went to a local photographer and asked him to take me on as a student. For one month, all I did was take photographs of products. It was an enormous learning experience."

The experience paid off. Blair has already published two Angels Direct catalogs, both brimming with angel-related and inspirational products, including books, paper products, jewelry, garden accessories, clothing, candles, artwork, and more. She says she is intensely committed to providing quality merchandise and services that enrich people's lives. "I want us to be of service. I want all our books to move people, and I want people to be able to trust us. Everything we send out is wrapped so the recipient can experience a special gift from us," says Blair. She explains that she tries to duplicate for others the delight she felt as a child when she received beautifully wrapped Bloomingdale's packages from her uncle in New York City.

One special product featured in Angels Direct is the Angel of Awareness pin, which Blair created in March 1995 as a symbol of awareness for women. The pins are also an avenue to help fund the foundation's work, as well as the work of women's shelters and safe houses. All proceeds from the sterling silver pin, which has become known as "the guardian angel for women," are donated to The Blair Foundation. This is particularly appropriate, since the first audience on which the foundation has focused is women, many of whom are abused or lacking in financial support and skills.

Blair also makes the pins available on a wholesale basis to shelters, safe houses, and other organizations. They then sell them at retail cost and benefit from the proceeds. Reporting that more than 4,000 pins have been purchased, she says, "I visualize an army of angels protecting everyone, especially the women who are out there raising children. My goal is to get a million pins out there to help fund the dreams and visions of the foundation."

Blair's long-range vision for The Blair Foundation is to establish the Life Enrichment Center, where individuals from across the country could come to participate in interactive workshops, seminars, and retreats. The center, which is a part of Blair's initial "angel business plan," would help women learn crafts, share and refine their talents, and establish their own cottage industries. Their products then would be marketed by Angels Direct, thus bringing the concept full circle.

Says Blair, "I see a cluster of cottage homes where women and children can come, where we could break the cycle of abuse, where children could know how special they are. We would work with women, or men, to show them possibilities and opportunities, to help them learn how to get out of abusive relationships, to get off the welfare rolls, and to design lives for themselves."

Blair has already chosen the 45 acres in the mountains near her Highlands, NC, home on which she'd like to locate the center. She is considering the idea of making the center available for retreats for women executives, who would provide scholarships through the foundation as part of their tuition. "Highlands is a real energy center. I see the center as a very therapeutic place for body, mind, and spirit."

Blair says that her vision for the center and the foundation keep her focused. Although she admits that she is presently "operating on a shoestring," she says she just takes it step by step.

 "We just need to keep getting our name out there. Never have I given up. I get up every morning with the intention that this is what I'm supposed to be doing. I used to be obsessed with getting everything done, no matter what cost. Now I'm more relaxed. I've found that if I stay in the flow of the day and just see how things play out, I accomplish ten times as much."

Family, friends, Kappa Alpha Theta, and the blessing of an optimistic attitude receive credit from Blair for where she is today. "My past experiences are all converging," explains Blair. "I was blessed with a father who told me I could do anything if I worked hard. My career choices, my experiences, and education from the Fraternity are all pieces of the puzzle. My parents, family, and friends have been important influences. When I was in the depths of depression, Lissa (Bradford) and Margie (Baum) and Marilyn (Lynch) called every day and believed in me."

Blair also has warm praise for her Highlands

friends
 and neighbors who were willing to share information, to help with fund-raising, and even to act as volunteer staff. "It's an act of love from a gazillion people who are out to empower me to get the job done."

But Blair says most of the credit goes to her faith, which she says has kept her on track. "We've all been challenged to be up to something bigger than ourselves," she explains. "I believe there is a plan."

Looking back, Blair sees a number of occurrences that she believes were guideposts. Shortly before she wrote the business plan for Angels Direct, she was asked by Theta friend and psychologist Lane Waas, Gamma Delta/Georgia, to prepare a program on angels for a study group. "I had been reading angel books, and I realize now that I was drawn to them. Then, within two days' time, I saw a Time magazine article on angels, then one in Newsweek. One of the magazines was dated December 27, which is my birthday, and the article on angels was on page 52, the year I was born. I believe I was given this plan for an angel business."

Blair hopes that many more people will join her in her mission for The Blair Foundation. She says, "More than anything, I want every Theta, every friend, every stranger to hold the vision that anyone can be anything they want to be and to know that the foundation is there to help. We'd love to have donations, but if people are not able or interested, I ask that they just keep us in their prayers every day. We can't ask for anything more." ■
